MOB LAW DECLARED IN KANSAS STATE!

SECTIONALISM CRY
REACTS ON HUGHES

G. O. P. Candidate Is Mocked
by Record of His Own Party in Congress.

LAWS ENACTED ARE FOR ALL

On Its Achievements Administration
Invites Judgment as to Whether
Its Work Is Sectional in Its Scope and Purpose.

Charles E. Hughes has raised the cry of sectionalism, complaining to his Western audiences because the important Committee Chairmanships in the House and Senate have been filled—this being due to seniority promotions—by Southern members.

"During the last year of Republican control there was not a committee chairmanship from the South," replies Congressman James B. Aswell in his speech reported in the Congressional Record. "Was that sectionalism or blind, ignorant partisanship?" he asks.

"Let the people decide," he suggests, "whether the following great measures enacted by this so-called South-controlled Congress are sectional or national:

"The Underwood Tariff Law, just to the consumer as against the special privileged class, followed by a non-partisan tariff commission removing the tariff question from politics.

"The Income Tax Law, causing the rich to pay their just proportion of the expenses of the Government.

"The Rural Credits Law, the first legislation solely for the farmers.

"The establishment of rural routes, the extension of the parcel post, and better mail service for our rural population.

"The Good Roads Law for all sections and for all our people.

"Farm extension laws, including Smith-Lever Act, grain and cotton standards, regulating cotton futures, and so forth.

"Numerous just labor laws, the most beneficial in a century by the American Congress.

"The Child Labor Law for the children of the whole country and for civilization.

"The Federal Reserve Act, giving an elastic currency and preventing financial panics—the greatest act ever passed in the history of our Government.

"Conservation acts for the people as against special interests.

"Anti-trust laws and arbitration laws, preventing special-interest control.

"Shipping act for open markets for our products and commercial mastery of the seas.

"Federal Trade Commission Act, protecting the individual as against the vested interests.

"The Seamen's Law for the workmen, and public safety.

"Legislation supporting the President in keeping us out of the European war while maintaining peace with honor to the American flag.

"Mr. Speaker, for the sake of the great dignity of the high office he seeks and in the name of common decency, let Mr. ex-Judge Hughes specify and name the sectional measures in the above list and mention those he would repeal!"

KANSAS MOB BREAKS INTO JAIL AND TAKES WHITE PRISONER.

Sheriff Resisted But Was Overpowered.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 22.—Today's lynching at Olathe was the first mob violence in Kansas in which a human life has been lost in twenty-five years.

Olathe, Kan., Sept. 22.—Bert Dudley, charged with the murder of Henry Muller, an aged German, and his wife, was taken from the Johnson county jail here early today by a masked mob and hung to a telephone pole. The mob came to Olathe in motor cars supposed from near Stillwell, where Muller had lived. Sheriff Lon Carroll refused to give up Dudley, and the mob overpowered him. Then they battered down three jail doors. Several shots were fired, but none was injured.

The sheriff made a brave stand but was soon overpowered. His wife threw the keys away, but the mob battered down three heavy doors and took the prisoner, who had been tried and convicted. Dudley, it is said, denied the crime.

TRYING TO DISCOVER MOB LEADERS.

Olathe Jury Goes to Starting
Place of the Mob, but Fails to Get Any Clues.

Olathe, Kan., Sept. 22.—Investigation by attaches of the county prosecutor's office of the lynching here yesterday of Bert Dudley and sewing of a coroner's jury to hold the inquest over Dudley's body furnished the day's developments in the attempt to fix the blame for the years.

The investigators went to Stillwell, Kan., 17 miles from here, the home of the aged first lynching in Kansas in ten Henry Muller and his wife, Dudley victims, and alleged to have been the starting place of the mob. No clue as to the mob's personnel was obtained, however, the investigators reported on the return here.
